

Trinity Home Educators is a nurturing homeschool community in Clemmons, Specializing in middle and high school academic and enrichment courses. With a focus on student and family well-being, we offer a variety of classes and activities, fostering a harmonious and peaceful environment where all are welcomed with open arms.

At Trinity Home Educators, we cherish monthly birthdays with singing, treats, and gifts for birthday students. Enjoy pizza and Chick-fil-A weeks, prayer before lunch (students also lead), and optional dress-up weeks. Join us for community gatherings, field trips, student events, and special occasions like Christmas parties, art shows, and more. We invest in our students and families, believing that God brings us together. Our cozy co-op fosters a comfortable, loving environment where harmony and peace prevail, creating a special place for everyone.
